Cultural EXPERIENCE

Cora Cora Maldives Museum has the most expansive collection of Maldivian cultural heritage outside the Maldives National Museum. Artefacts found on Maamigili dates from Pre-Islamic period to Colonial Period in the Indian Ocean. An impressively well preserved oil lamp from the Buddhist period and immaculately preserved Chinese porcelain from 1500's on both ends of this collections chronological spectrum.

The collection is displayed at two areas of the resort, one at the main lobby gallery and larger exhibits are accessed at the Outdoor Museum at the centre of the island.

The ethnographic collection, exhibited at the lobby gallery, acquired around the country represents a pre-modern era in Maldivian history. This collection tells the story of peoples who populated and thrived on these islands for over 2000 years.

The outdoor Museum has a fully intact eight meter wide Temple Tank from the pre-islamic period and a twin Temple Tank in the process of excavation. A 120 year old traditional house that was relocated to the museum has been rebuilt and fully furnished represents the intricacies of traditional Maldivian lifestyle.

GALLERY AT THE LOBBY

Highlights of the collections will be displayed here permanently.

THE OUTDOOR MUSEUM SITE

Guests will discover a traditional Maldivian wooden house, a 900 year-old bathing tank and much more.

Dive & Watersports CENTRE

Discover the aquatic world through house-reef snorkelling or diving excursions to nearby dive spots. Full PADI Certification is available for beginners and advanced divers.

EXCURSIONS

Sunset cruise, Snorkelling safari and visit to local island as well as non-motorized water-sports can be enjoyed.

Wellness

A wellness journey of discovery awaits. Comprised of seven individual treatment rooms available either on the beach or over the waters of the sparkling Indian Ocean, with expansive panoramic views. Each treatment room is a haven of tranquillity and zen and each treatment is carefully crafted and delivered by professional therapists.
